From the Chronicler

Summer is long over. In the past few months the meager contributions to the Sentinel have all but dried up although a few event copies were submitted. We need more contributions, especially those mirroring An Tir such as notices of officer changes.

Photos, articles, event copy, post-event reports, letters from officers would all be appreciated.

This month I'd like to see how many people actually read the Sentinel. If you read it, send me an email to baron.james.llewellyn@gmail.com with your SCA and Modern Name and the fact that you read the Sentinel. I will randomly draw a name from those that do so and award a prize to that person.

I would like to compile a collection of our four-legged friends who attend events. No, I don't mean the Wolf Pack. If you have a dog who attends events in Tir Righ, send me a great photo of your dog and we'll print them in the Sentinel.

I am looking for a deputy who would someday like to take on this position. If you are interested, let me know.

A reminder that officers reports from the branches are due to your Principality Superiors on the 1st of Nov.
