Article I - The Law

Section 1 - The Source of Law

Within the Principality of Tir Righ, the word of the Coronet is law, subject to modern law of the relevant jurisdictions, the governing documents of the Society, Kingdom Law and the approval of the Crown. Principality Law is subject to the same restrictions as the word of the Coronet. Corpora is considered a governing document.

Section 2 - Amendments

Principality Law may be amended by the Coronet. Amendments must be reviewed by the Principality Seneschal for compliance with the above restrictions. Any amendments to Principality Law must first be submitted to the Crown and Kingdom Seneschal, in writing, and receive the Crown's signatures before being proclaimed.

Section 3 - When Effective

Amendments to Principality Law and proclamations must be announced at events within the Principality as soon as possible, but no subject of the Principality shall be held accountable until that proclamation or law is signed and published.

Section 4 - Publication

1. Principality Law shall not need to be printed to be considered "published". The Kingdom and Principality websites shall maintain the most recent version of these Laws, and that shall be accepted as published.
2. Amendments and proclamations must be published in the Principality newsletter, The Northern Sentinel, and the Kingdom newsletter, The Crier, before they are fully in effect.
3. This edition (June 8/ AS 57) is the current Principality Law and all earlier versions are repealed.

Article II - The Coronet

Section 1 - Rights and Duties

The rights and duties of the Coronet are detailed in Corpora and in Kingdom Law; what follows is particular to Tir Righ.

1. The Coronet and Heirs, when applicable, must attend all Coronet and Principality Events.
2. Neither the Coronet nor the Heirs will be charged event fees at Coronet and Principality Events.
3. The Coronet and Heirs are responsible for reasonable maintenance of the regalia for their office and must pass the regalia on to Their successor(s).

Section 2 - Failure to Reign

1. Failure to reign includes:
 - a. Failure to attend Coronet and Principality Events, unless such failure to attend is beyond the control of the Sovereign or Inspiration and no failure of intent to reign is demonstrated.
 - b. Abdication. A letter from the Coronet to the Crown, Heirs (if any), Kingdom Seneschal and Principality Seneschal, indicating intent to abdicate constitutes an official abdication.
2. Failure to perform the duties of the Coronet as judged by the Crown with the advice of the Principality Seneschal, the Principality Champions, and Principality Noble Estate.
3. Should either of the Coronet be unable to complete the reign for whatever reason, the other shall assume the duties of both for the remainder of the reign.
4. Should both the Coronet be unable to complete the reign, the Heirs shall be invested as soon as possible. Until that time, the administrative duties of the Coronet shall fall on the Regent, and the Coronet shall revert to the Crown of An Tir.
5. The Armoured Champion of Tir Righ shall, with the approval of the Crown, serve as Regent. If the Heavy Champion cannot carry out the Regent duties, then the Crown, with advice from the Principality Seneschal and the Noble Estate, shall select the most suitable Royal Peer to serve as Regent. The Regent's primary responsibility is to host a Coronet List as soon as possible and to immediately invest the victor and Inspiration as the Coronet. The Regent may not change law or give awards.

Article III - The Coronet Lists

The selection of the Coronet is detailed in Corpora. What follows is particular to Tir Righ.

1. Coronet Lists Eligibility
 - a. Entrants to the Coronet Lists and their prospective inspirations must have lived within the borders of Tir Righ for one year preceding the Coronet Tournament and expect to remain residents for the duration of Their reign. The Coronet may grant exceptions.
 - b. All competitors and their prospective inspirations must hold a valid membership on the day of the Coronet Tournament, and maintain membership throughout their reign. Proof of membership (in whatever form) must be presented to the Principality Seneschal within 14 days of being declared victor in the tournament.
 - c. Should the results of a Coronet Tournament be declared invalid for any reason, a Coronet Tournament shall be called at the beginning of the Investiture Event. This tournament shall be limited to eligible entrants and their prospective inspirations who competed in the invalidated Coronet Tournament. The victor of the tournament and their inspiration shall be invested immediately.

d. Entrants to the Coronet Lists and their prospective inspirations must be legally able to cross the Canadian/American border as long as Tir Righ maintains a branch in the United States. Passports required.

2. Combat Conventions: the Sovereign shall determine Coronet List combat conventions.

Article IV - Champions

Section 1- Designation of Champions

The Champions are: Armoured Champion, Rapier Champion, Archery Champion, Arts and Sciences Champion, Bardic Champion and Thrown Weapons Champion.

Section 2 - Championship Tourneys

1. The Championship tournaments will take place as follows.

- a. Armoured Champion, at the Summer Investiture,
- b. Rapier Champion, at the Winter Investiture,
- c. Archery Champion, at the Summer Investiture,
- d. Arts and Sciences Champion, at the Tir Righ A&S/Bardic Championship,
- e. Bardic Champion, at the Tir Righ A&S/Bardic Championship,
- f. Thrown Weapons Champion, at the June Coronet Tournament.

2. It is the right and responsibility of each Champion to organize the tournament to choose their successor, in consultation with the Coronets of Tir Righ. The relevant Principality Officer, and the council of the relevant order will be available to support the Champion with administration and tournament design as requested. Champions who wish to defend their title must declare so to the Coronet in advance.

Addendum 1: Historically, the Tir Righ A&S/Bardic Championship has been run by the MoASB, as of this law change, the tournament shall be organized and administered by the Tir Righ A&S/Bardic Champion.

Assistance of the Tir Righ A&S Minister; Laurels Council and Coronets/Heirs will be available at all times. It is expected that aid will be provided by the Principality Arts and Science officer and deputies to continue to administrate the tournament through recruitment of judges, assisting with scheduling etc - much as a list person supports martial tournaments as example.

In the event that the current Champion is unable to organize this tournament, or would like to have the mentorship of, it is acceptable and reasonable that a Guardian of Tir Righ, in this format, be asked to step in and work in conjunction with the Champion, PMoASB and the Laurel community and the Coronets in any combination thereof.

Addendum 2: As of this writing the Tir Righ Bardic Champion has been tasked with creating an Ethereal portion of their Championship to allow for low barrier access for remote entrants. This is to encourage all participants to be able to enter regardless of the limitations on travel. Planning and consultations are in process at this time.

3. Entry to the Champion Tournament is open to members of the populace who are residents of Tir Righ. Persons residing in areas beyond the Principality borders may petition the Coronets for an exemption to this. Such petitions will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Section 3 - Serving as Champion

No one person may hold more than one Principality Championship at the same time.

Section 4 - Rights and Duties of Champions

The job descriptions, duties, responsibilities and privileges of the Champions are detailed as follows:

1. Duties of All Champions
 - a. To swear an oath of fealty and service to the Coronet.
 - b. To defend the honour and prestige of the Coronet and the Principality of Tir Righ, whenever such is challenged and to support the Coronet in war.
 - c. To attend all Coronet Events. Prior notification to Their Highnesses and Their Heirs must be made if the Champion is unable to attend.
 - d. To maintain membership in the Society during the Champion's term of service.
 - e. To speak or act in the Coronet's name when delegated to do so.
 - f. To further the interests of their area of endeavor.
 - g. To have access-to the Northern Sentinel for the duration of their championship, in addition to membership requirements set forth in Kingdom Law and Corpora.
 - h. To organize the tournament to choose their successor

2. Rights of All Champions
 - a. To stand armed near the Coronet at all events.
 - b. To be at the side of the Coronet in war and at court.
 - c. To bear and display the regalia of their position.
 - d. Where space permits, a place at Head Table with the Coronet.
 - e. Champions shall not be charged site fees at Coronet and Principality Events.
 - f. To organize the tournament to choose their successor.

Section 5 - Champions' Regalia

In keeping with the Principality Financial Policy, Champions are responsible for reasonable maintenance of the regalia for their office and must pass the regalia on to their successor. After being invested as Champion, the Champion must contact the Chamberlain to log what regalia they have in their possession and what condition it is in. At the end of their term as Champion, they should assist the new Champion in doing the same if needed.

Section 6 - Competing In Other Championships

A Principality of Tir Righ Champion may compete for a Kingdom Championship with the permission of the Coronet.

Article V - Officers

Section 1 - Officers

Article VII - Coronet, Principality Events and events within Tir Righ

Coronet Events are detailed in Kingdom Law; what follows is particular to Tir Righ.

Section 1 - Schedule

Tir Righ Coronet Tournaments shall take place after An Tir Crown Tournaments.

1. The Coronet Events are:
 - a. June Coronet Tourney: three weeks after the Victoria Day long weekend (An Tir May Crown).
 - b. August Investiture: one week before Labour Day long weekend (but must not conflict with Pennsic).
 - c. November Coronet Tourney: first weekend in November, prior to Crown Council.
 - d. February Investiture: 4th weekend of February (but must not conflict with BC's Provincial Holiday - "Family Day", which falls on the third Monday of Feb).

Addendum 3. Peerage Council meetings will be held online within 14 days prior to Coronet level events; all levels of candidates should be given time for review and discussion during these meetings. Priority at on site/in person meetings will be given to candidates at 'recommend to Kingdom' or level 1; urgent and important business. This is subject to the whim of TRM should They be in attendance and desire in person meetings.

2. The Principality Events are:
 - a. Tir Righ Arts, Sciences and Bardic Championships: 4th weekend in September.
 - b. Tir Righ Heraldic & Scribal Symposium/Grand TUTR: 1st weekend in April that is not Easter, every other year.

In the event that real world circumstances make holding a Coronet level event on its original date an impossibility, and in the interests of facilitating timely succession and certainty, the Coronet, in consultation with the Principality and Kingdom Seneschals and the Crown, will request a variance to reschedule the Coronet event to occur as soon as possible thereafter, in compliance with the restrictions dictated by modern law and regulations.

The Coronet is empowered to act creatively in formulating an armoured combat Coronet tournament formation or Investiture format that complies with modern restrictions and enables a well-contested Coronet, and/or formal succession to occur expediently.

Section 2 - Conflicting Events

Within the borders of Tir Righ, no event may conflict with a Coronet or Principality Event without the express permission of the Coronet.

Section 3 - Event Bids

1. Bids from branches under probation or suspension will not be considered.
2. Coronet or Principality Events shall be open to bid by any branch within Tir Righ.
3. Bids will be accepted up to two years in advance, and shall be awarded at least 6 months prior to the event, as per the Event Bid Schedule and Policy (see Appendix i.).
4. The Principality Financial Committee will select the winning bid. If there are no suitable bids the Coronet and Principality Seneschal will work with the branches to ensure that the event is carried out as scheduled.
5. Branches who have been awarded bids under the Early Bid Program will receive an increased amount of the net profit as per the Principality Financial Policy.

Section 4 - Net Profit or Net Loss

The splitting of a Coronet or Principality Event net profit or net loss between the host branch and the Principality is detailed in the Principality Financial Policy.

Section 5 - Premier Events

All Branch Seneschals within the Principality of Tir Righ will utilize the Tir Righ Premier events procedure to select their Premier Event and the requested date as detailed in the Tir Righ Seneschal's Handbook.

Article VIII - Period Armour Requirements

This law is to promote the recreation aspect and historical atmosphere of SCA combat, not to limit participation on the field.

All equipment with visible modern logos or modern merchandising must have an attempt made to be covered during combat and/or removed during Coronet event level processions to ensure the medieval aesthetic.

Article IX - The University of Tir Righ

1. The University of Tir Righ is an extension of the Coronet of Tir Righ , intended to foster and develop the pursuit of medieval research and the sharing of knowledge in Tir Righ.
2. The University of Tir Righ is overseen, on behalf of the Coronets, by the Governor of the University of Tir Righ, a Principality Officer warranted by the Coronet.
3. The University of Tir Righ is governed by the rules set forward in the University of Tir Righ Handbook. Changes to this Handbook must be authorized by the Coronet, the Principality Seneschal, the Principality Exchequer and the Governor of the University of Tir Righ.

Article X - The Tir Righ Website

1. The website for the Principality of Tir Righ is the publication and public presentation of the Principality and the Coronets of Tir Righ, and as such must maintain a professional and suitable format. This format will be decided on through consultation with the Webminister, the Coronets, and the Seneschal.
2. The Webminister is responsible for the day-to-day maintenance and changes to the website. No significant design changes shall be made to the website without direct consultation and written permission of the Coronets and the Seneschal.
3. the Tir Righ website, and all websites representing Tir Righ (branches and other), shall follow the Kingdom of An Tir Webminister's Policy.

Article XI - Conduct

All subjects of Tir Righ shall comply with An Tir law regarding Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. It is encouraged that all participants be familiar with, and abide by, principality and kingdom laws, customs, traditions, Grievance procedures, Bullying and Harassment Policies, etc. All should be aware that consequences of violation of such, and of modern laws may result in expulsion from an event/events, banishment, dismissal from office or other sanctions. Any violation of modern law will be turned over to law enforcement officials; and will be grounds for investigation and consequences within that setting.

Participants should strive for courtesy, consideration, honor and chivalric behavior at all times.

Discrimination, bullying, harassment, of any sort, against any participant, will not be tolerated and will be addressed, upon complaint in writing, by the Principality Seneschal and referred to the Kingdom Seneschal. If resolution is unable to be attained at a Principality level. Reprisal falls under Kingdom law but may include actions up to and including Banishment, or Temporary Removal from Participation.
