Words from the Newly Invested Storm Thrones

Greetings Unto the Populace of Tir Righ,

We truly have no words to express Our gratitude to all of you. You made Our Investiture one of celebration, love, joyful tears, and happiness. It was a bit of a whirlwind as We stepped up as Prince and Princess of Tir Righ. A coming together of communities and people from all over this great Principality. First, we became Heirs and greeted You with arms held open. And Tir Righ, You opened Yours in return.

Its the beginnings and the journey that makes up who you are. The sum of all the lived experiences weaving a tapestry that brings us full circle. We come before you now. Back to a new beginning. Standing with Our friends new and old (Though We 'prefer' to say seasoned lol).

To see Our very own Heroes, the people who have inspired us to do better and be better people offering their support and oaths is humbling. To have Adisa Roeksdottir standing firm by Our sides with her blessing and support, Magnus' Wife and Light, Sina's cherished friend.

To the Event Team, thank you for persevering through the site hiccups. Your constant communication and problem solving kept the event moving and made it an amazing day of celebration.

To Our retinue, guards, attendants, heralds, clothiers, coordinators, and feeders of food and providers of coffee... You are beyond amazing. There is no way we could do this without you. You are all treasured.

From their Majesties Octamasades and Achaxe in attendance to not only Invest us, but to offer awards, elevations and strength, to their subjects in Tir Righ, to the incredibly hard work of our Retinue, new friends and old, people checking in on us, or small things like Neregui playing the Conan the Barbarian theme song quietly on his phone before we entered court to be invested which couldn't have been more well timed, or to my shining example of what it is to be just an amazing human, Steinnar who traveled from the East Coast to be here for me. Sir Ulfgar- Knight to Magnus, Friend to Sina, making you proud fills Our hearts.

In the end. After all the ceremony and words. There was one moment that shone for both of Us brighter than any other. Sina, stealthily together with Their Majesties, sprung the best gift of all. And Magnus unaware, until suddenly, behind damp eyes (it was VERY dusty you know ;)) bore witness to raven-haired Adisa - love of His life - finally receive her Award of Arms from Sina's hands, followed closely by Their Majesties recognizing Adisa as a Court Baroness. Both a complete surprise to Magnus which made the moment all that sweeter.

Dreams do come true.

A Pirate... to Squire... made a Knight... Became a Prince...

A Roma dancer... to Apprentice... made a Laurel... Became a Princess...

To the People of Tir Righ.

You have left Our humble hearts full of love and happiness. We will strive to serve you well.

Yours In Joyful Service,
Magnus Ulfgarsson, Prince, Tir Righ
Sina Erdeneva, Princess, Tir Righ

The Words from Investiture

Wordsmith Sir Antonio Romeo Maria di Francesco da San Gimignano of Lions Gate
Spoken by Sir Saif ibn Owain and His Highness Magnus Ulfgarsson

Magnus:

Gracious Achaxe, and Ocamasades of the Strong Left Hand, undoubted majesties, I have business before this court.

When Davin and Groa sat the throne, in their wisdom they decreed that Tir Righ would have a prince and princess.

Einar, ancient, war-wise, earned
That storm-tossed throne, for Thora's honour, and since that day the Crown of An Tir has seen fit to let Tir Righ choose from among its populace one to represent the Crown of An Tir in An Tir's North.
But the Storm Throne is empty, and the North is a rudderless ship.

The coronet has been set aside.
I come now to claim it for my consort's honour.

Saif:

Your majesties, if I may.
Who is this upstart, this unwise interloper
Who enters, armed, into your house
With hard eyes and hands empty?

Magnus:

I am Magnus, of the House of Ulfgar, inspired by Sina, who speaks wisdom.

Saif:

I heard of a Magnus once,
a sinister pirate in a silly hat,
with one arm withered,
so badly wasted he was forced to hold his sword
in the wrong hand.

I hear he wasted his days in leisure, drifting, directionless under a dark flag.

Are you that Magnus?

Magnus:

Yes, I plied my trade in plunder, in my youth.
I wandered distant lands, and nearby lands, and learned much.

The world knows well the works of my hands

With tools of war and tools of peace,

Far and near my name is known

And spinners of tales tell of my trials.

A wise man travels widely, when he's young,

To gather wisdom the world over.

My wandering is ended, and I come to take my seat.

Saif:

I've heard of another Magnus,

Too cowardly to claim the coronet,

Who'd rather spin his steps than steel his heart

To serve his people as their prince.

Are you that little man who never looked

On responsibility but with fear?

Magnus:

I drifted in my youth, it's true, and fought only for myself,
and love.

My inspiration then came from Adisa,

Courageous as the sun, But with no eye to rule.

We had each other, and had no need of coronets.

I love Adisa still, but now have Sina by my side as well.

Wise in council, wide in travel,

Skillful in hand and word,

She guides me on, and helps me to unravel

The tangled knot of State.

Now, supported and inspired by these two lights,

My wandering is ended, and I come to take my seat.

Who now would stand and say my way is false?

Saif:

I am Saif ibn Owain, once Prince, now Champion, sworn to protect the lineage of Tir Righ.

Magnus:

Then you know well the right of Magnus and Sina to sit the storm thrones.
You were there when Alden fell, and the fierce blows
Rang like rain from the hewing of rings.
The day was hot with the hewing of shields,
From the feast of ravens I rose alone,
Held skyward by Sina's support,
Lifted high by Adisa's love.
I have gathered my court, and made my journey.
And now, supported and inspired by these two lights,
My wandering is ended, and I come to take my seat.

Crown (to Saif):

Is this true?

Saif:

I seem to recall something about that..

Chronicler Deputy Wanted

To the Esteemed Nobles and Gentles of Tir Righ,

Hail and well met, you radiant stars of virtue and valor! How blessed am I to share citizenship among such paragons of talent and wisdom! Although alas, I witness from afar, and I oft go unseen.

Yet I find myself burdened, nay crushed, beneath the weight of heralding your glories alone. Is it truly fitting that one lone soul should bear the task of singing your praises to the realm? Must I, Kunigunde, carry this noble burden alone, when surrounded by such brilliance? You are each so accomplished, so dazzling in your deeds, that I cannot possibly recount them all myself!

I know, I know... I am but a distant echo at your feasts and tourneys. My absence is felt, my laughter missed. But surely, this should not hinder one among you from stepping forth to serve! If not for me, then for our beloved Prince and Princess, for your noble houses, and for the legacy of Tir Righ itself.

The dog days of Summer are upon us. Sirius burns bright, the tomatoes droop, the flitful hummingbird grows lethargic. The lake beasts stir, hungry for unattended children. And soon, my time in this office shall end. Imagine, if you will, a world without Kunigunde to guide you through the shadowy archives and whisper which officers are kindest (spoiler: they all are).

To serve beside me is to serve Tir Righ. It is noble, it is glorious, and if we can be honest... it is desperately needed. So rise, dear friends. Let not my quill grow dull from solitude.

Yours in tireless service,

Kunigunde Die Junger

TUTR Tales

In the words of Einarr Karlsson, TUTR Minister:
Two things stand out for me. One is the TUTR Course Catalogue. Although we do not yet have a way to make it visible on the Internet, it already has over 100 courses in it. It saves a lot of time for teachers and organizers because if anyone teaches a course that is already in the catalogue, they do NOT need to fill out a new course proposal for every event where they teach it.

The other is that we are beginning to find and offer courses on topics that have rarely or never been offered before, which means that the scope and range of TUTR learning is expanding. The best recent example that I know of was the courses in Romani culture and history that Sara la Rosa taught at Lions War.

We regret to inform that the Hartwood Fall TUTR has been postponed to February 2026. Please stay tuned for more details.

Final Words from Viscountess Tatiana

Unto the Populace of Tir Righ,

As I step down from the Storm Thrones, my heart is full. This reign has been one of the most challenging and most rewarding experiences of my life, and it was only made possible through the strength of this community. You welcomed me, supported me, laughed with me, and stood beside me through every step of this journey.

The Coronet has been passed to others, but my gratitude to you endures. Thank you for your service, your joy, and your unflagging spirit. It has been my deepest honour to serve as your Sultana.

With love,

Tatiana, Viscountess Tir Righ

Their Excellencies of Seagirt - Vémundr Syvursson and Hallveig Sigrúnardóttir

Translated from the Ancient Scrolls of Astrologers

Aries (The Battle-Ready Flame)

Hark, brave Aries! September bringeth trials that may weigh heavy upon thy spirit. Yet fear not—for these burdens are not thy undoing, but the forge of thy fortitude. Let not haste be thy counsel; breathe deep, and let wisdom guide thy hand. Thy resolve is thy shield, thy patience a noble steed. Tend to thy own needs when weariness draws near, for self-care is no vanity—it is the sacred key to clarity and strength. Rise not in fury, but in grace, and thou shalt weather the storm with honor. These days test thy mettle, yet within them lies the chance to grow wiser, stronger, and more steadfast than ever before.

Taurus (The Velvet-Horned Bull)

O steadfast Taurus, this month doth pull thee betwixt duty and hearth. Thy labors call, yet thy private life seeketh thy gentle touch. Though the demands be many, within this strife lieth the seed of noble growth. The stars bid thee bend like the willow—forsake rigid hopes and embrace the smoother path. Compromise, though oft unseen, is thy hidden strength. It is no weakness, but a mark of thy wisdom and grace. Let thy calm heart and steady hand unite those in discord. What beginneth in weariness may blossom into harmony. Through patience and diplomacy, thou shalt find balance, and in balance, thou shalt find peace.

Gemini (The Two-Faced Jester)

O lively Gemini, thy charm doth shine like a beacon, drawing many unto thee. Now is the time to forge bonds, strengthen kinships, and sow alliances that may bear fruit in days to come. Yet beware—too many paths may scatter thy focus. Thy gift this moon is in choosing wisely where to place thy energy. Let structure be thy steward; set thy priorities as a knight sets his course. As the days unfold, locked doors shall open, and dreams once distant draw near. Step forth with confidence, for thou hast chosen thy path with care and wisdom. What once seemed mere fancy now cometh thy destiny.

Cancer (The Sentimental Crab with a Ledger)

Rejoice, gentle Cancer, for the heavy veil that clouded thy spirit now lifteth. A fresh wind bloweth at thy back, filling thy sails with newfound vigor—be it in craft, heart, or soul. The stars whisper of renewal, as if some hidden hand hath pressed a sacred reset within thee. Now is the hour to breathe life into old labors or boldly embark upon new quests. Thy resilience hath been proven in stormy seas; now courage must be thy compass. Success is no distant star—it lieth within reach, shouldst thou dare extend thy hand. Let thy heart be brave, thy steps be sure, and the path shall open before thee.

Leo (The Crowned Roarer)

O radiant Leo, the weight of old tales still clingeth to thee, yet the stars declare: the past is but a chapter, not thy dwelling. Cast off these shadows, and lo! New fire stirreth within—thy spirit, thy craft, thy purpose rekindleth. Ideas burst forth like wildfire, and thy passion awakens long-slumbering labors. Let not yesteryear's wounds pen thy morrow. Thou art free to stride forward, bold and unshaken. The road ahead lieth open, awaiting thy confident tread. Step forth, noble soul, for thy brilliance is no longer bound—it is thy birthright, and the hour to claim it is now.

Virgo (The Quill-Wielding Taskmaster)

O diligent Virgo, September knocketh upon thy door with weighty tasks and newfound trials. Though the burden seemeth great, it is but a sign of thy worth—thou art entrusted with more, for thou hast proven thy strength. Balance shall be thy truest ally. Divide thy energies with care, set thy priorities as a wise steward, and fear not the power of a well-placed “nay.” Thou needst not bear all alone, but thou must keep thy vision clear. With thoughtful planning and noble resolve, thou shalt not merely endure this moon, but rise above it! This may well be the turning of thy tide, revealing how far thy steadfast soul may journey.

Translated from the Ancient Scrolls of Astrologers

Libra (The Fence-Sitting Flirt)

O gracious Libra, thy gift for balance shall be thy guiding star this moon. Though the winds of doubt may stir and the air feel uncertain, thy inner compass remaineth true. Trust in thyself, for thou knowest thy path. Moments of hesitation shall come, yet let them pass like fleeting shadows. Hold fast to thy center, and quiet triumphs shall be thy reward... a kind word, a smooth accord, a truth revealed in gentle discourse. Thy calm spirit and noble grace shall draw clarity from confusion. Walk with poise, and the stars shall honor thee with peace and purpose.

Scorpio (The Smoldering Phoenix of Destiny)

O fierce Scorpio, thy ambitions rise like the morning sun, and the realm of thy labors buzzeth with promise. Projects once thought lost return with vigor, and doors long shut now swing open to thy determined hand. Yet heed the stars' counsel... do not forsake thy hearth and kin. Share thy triumphs, nurture thy bonds, and let love be thy fortress. When thy heart is fortified by friendship and affection, thy strength is doubled. Balance betwixt worldly glory and tender connection shall be thy key. Walk with purpose, but let thy soul remain rooted in those who cherish thee.

Sagittarius (The Wandering Arrow)

O bold Sagittarius, the winds of change blow swift upon thee, and restless energy doth stir thy soul. The stars urge thee forward, perchance faster than thou art ready, and the path may seem chaotic. Yet thy challenge is clear: discern true opportunity from mere distraction. Ask thyself with honesty, what dost thou seek, and what is but noise? Once thy vision is steady, naught shall hinder thee. Adventures await, surprises spring forth, and new wonders beckon. Embrace the thrill, but let thy inner compass hold firm. The more grounded thy heart, the more enchanted thy journey shall be.

Capricorn (The Goat with a God Complex)

Oh naive Capricorn, the stars do frown upon thy affairs this moon. Thy plans unravel like poorly spun thread, and thy judgment - especially if thou be a Capricorn man - seems clouded as a fog-bound mooring. What once felt secure now teetereth, and thy grasp on romance doth slip. Thy ambition hath led thee astray, chasing shadows whilst ignoring the lantern of wisdom. Beware pride, for it may be thy undoing. The heavens urge thee to humble thyself, lest ruin find thee unprepared. Tread carefully, especially around your newfound foes, and perhaps October shall smile where September scowls.

Aquarius (The Mad Oracle of the Well)

O wise Aquarius, the mists do part, and thy path now gleameth with clarity. After long wandering through indecision, thy dreams take shape once more, like stars piercing the night. A cool wind stirreth thy spirit, awakening purpose and drive. Yet beware the haste of excitement, many a false promise wears the cloak of opportunity. Let caution temper thy zeal. Seek counsel from trusted kin, for they may spy what thy eyes miss. Thy talents gain favor in the realm of labor, yet true triumph lieth in walking thy path with truth. Let thy choices be thoughtful, thy steps be sure, and thy vision shall shine with noble light.

Pisces (The Soft-Spoken Siren)

O gentle Pisces, at long last, peace returneth to thy soul. After a summer of tempests and troubled tides, September arriveth like a soft breeze upon calm waters. Discord fades, misunderstandings soften, and bonds mend with quiet grace. Kind souls draw near, bearing words of reconciliation and warmth. Yet serenity is no call to slumber—heed the subtle currents beneath thy dealings. If aught feels amiss, trust thy inner voice and speak ere shadows grow. This moon blesseth thee with clarity and reconnection, both in thy labors and thy heart. Answers arise not through pursuit, but through stillness. Let reflection be thy lantern, and thou shalt walk in harmony with thyself and others.
