Words from Their Highnesses on the Occasion of Their Coronet Tournament

Now that we have had a couple days to breathe in the joy and wonder of it all... Wow. Just. Wow.

We have been to many Coronet events over the years. But this one hit home in a special way. And not because it was our tournament. It felt magical to be there.

You the People of Tir Righ made magic and brought the dream alive and for that time, that day we were transported back. The children's laughter (oh that warms our hearts); The friends old and new making connections with each other. Watching as Us "Old Guard" hand the light and metaphorical torches to the young and watching people succeed and grow. The ambience was beautiful. The artisans sharing, and every where We looked there was informal teaching of skills be it in the Arts, Sciences, Bardic or Martial endeavours. What a thing to be behold and bear witness to. Their Majesties Achaxe and Octamasades lit up the rooms with their smiles, joy and companionship.

There are just so many Thank Yous that need to be said and if we miss anyone we apologize... To the event stewards and team... Thank you for making this Coronet spectacular. To the people who volunteered to run gate, man the beverages for sale, set up, take down, marshal, judge, score, run the lists, herald, entertain, kept Our Guests and Ourselves hydrated and reminded us to eat, the people behind the scenes who ACTUALLY run the show... court coordinators, scribes, illuminators, retinue, guards, pages, the people who gave of their time and energy to support the multiple vigilants...

We don't have the words to fully convey how much you are appreciated and that you are seen doing all that heavy lifting. We see you. We are beyond proud and grateful. To Our Heirs, We know we will be leaving the Principality in good hands when February draws nigh and the Winter Storm Clouds herald the end of our time and the springtime of yours.

In Joyous
Service,
Prince
Magnus
Ulfgarsson
Princess Sina
Erdeneva

New Peers in Tir Righ

November Coronet saw King Octamasades and Queen Achaxe elevate six members of Tir Righ to peerage, as well as put two additional individuals on vigil. Congratulations to the newest Peers of An Tir and vigilants! Our thanks to Greta Grunwald for providing these fabulous photos of each elevation and announcement.

Tyrfingr Regenvldrson became a member of the Chivalry. Jaqueline la Fleur was entered into the Order of the Pelican, and in a surprise move, also the Order of the Mark. Morweena joined the Order of the Laurel. Athelina Grey was elevated to the Order of the Mark. Daimhin O'Daire becomes the newest member of the Order of Defence. Malyss Makneile also joined the Order of the Laurel.

Put on vigil for the Order of the Laurel was Lishinia Aurelia, and for the Order of Chivalry, Wulfgar Bradax

Words From Our Heirs

Greetings Tir Righ from your Tanists Finn and Eduardo,

Thank you so much for all the support and love you have all given to us since We moved, back to Tir Righ and for the same outpouring since We Were successful in the Coronet Tourney.

First and foremost, We must thank the event team for putting on a great event! HUZAH for the work they put into making Coronet a success. We both know the work which goes into organizing these events, thank you. We would also like to thank Their Highnesses Tir Righ Magnus and Sina. Your generosity with Your time to help Us get up to speed has been wonderful and We are truly grateful. Your Coronet Tourney is usually one of the toughest events of a reign. You both handled it with love towards Your people and support and care of all the combatants and their inspirations. We so appreciate Your care and guidance in these new roles and look forward to the next few months as We sit beside You and give You Our support. A huge thank you to all on the team and most importantly to all the populace who came to the event and showed up as their best selves. We hope you all had a great time! Please note that We are still getting some of our retinue positions filled and if you would like to help out with the many tasks that keep a reign on track please talk to our Dual Heads of Retinue.

Viscountesses Tatiana and Glynis have taken up the charge of being our dual heads of retinue. We so appreciate their calm, level-headed support and guidance. Our Progress has been finalized and published on the Tir Righ website. Please note that We do not expect anyone to follow us south of the border and have a great team of support for when We represent Tir Righ in the rest of the Kingdom. In the immediate future, before Investiture We attended Seagirt Yule, and are planning also to visit Summits Investiture, Stromguard Yule, Kingdom 12th Night, Ursalmus (His Royal Excellency Finn Only), and Hartwood TUTOR. Our Royal Liaison will reach out to the Event Stewards for these events to let them know We will be in attendance and coordinate with them for any needs.

We would at this time like to address our Rapier Championship. We are so happy to host this championship at Investiture. Our current Champion will publish the format for the event soon. We will require all entrants to have an inspiration to enter the tournament. If your inspiration will not be able to make it to the event, We would ask that you send us a request for a dispensation. We will review these on a case-by-case basis so please let Us know why they cannot attend. We believe the SCA is a TEAM SPORT. We all play multiple positions in this sport to make the game function with fun, frivolity and a win for all!

It should be noted Tanist Eduardo has resigned as the Chair of the Road to Kingdom (RtK) Committee Chair. Mistress Yrsa (Cristin Elle) has been his deputy and did an amazing job of running the RtK Meeting at Coronet while Eduardo was otherwise occupied. She will take over as the Chair of the Committee. Thank you so much for your service to the Principality.

With love and service for our Principality and Kingdom,
Finn, Tanist Tir Righ Eduardo, Tanist Tir Righ

Greetings to the populace from your Road to Kingdom Steering Committee!

As you know we recently posted our “Tir Righ Road to Kingdom Unofficial Survey” which many of you kindly took the time to fill out to let us know your opinions on this proposal. The results were overwhelmingly positive with 91% of those responding in favour of further pursuing this path. We are now in the process of building our committees and are excited by the many of you who have offered your time and energy. These volunteers will be filling positions in all areas from heraldry to law.

As I have mentioned in each of the meetings or conversations I’ve had, this isn’t a quick process, it’s something that will likely take 4 or more years to implement. No one is making rushed decisions, and the populace will be a part of this journey every step of the way. If you have questions please ask them, I will be happy to answer anything I can or find the answer for you. You can reach me at dcocking@shaw.ca or via Facebook Messenger.

EAT THIS BOOK!

By Maestro Eduardo Lucrezia

Food, cooking and eating is a critical part of our modern, re-creation and recreation, experience. Every person, of every class, in every time period, needed nourishment, sustenance, and to some degree, the entertainment provided through food. The food history category of cooking, research and reference books has exploded over the last few years and it can be hard to navigate. Whether you want to build a reference library or to indulge in another branch of book-mania “Eat This Book” will help. In each column we will explore one or two essential books in different categories.

Reference books might not be as much fun as those with recipes, but they build a critical foundation for the food and feasts we eventually share with our fellow re-enactors. One such critical book is The Oxford Companion to Food by Alan Davidson published by Oxford University Press 1st Edition 1999, 2nd Edition 2006, 3rd Edition 2014, published in soft cover under the title The Penguin Companion to Food 2002.

With over 2,650 alphabetical entries, starting with Aardvark and ending with Zucchini you can certainly say this book talks about food from A to Z and everything in between! It is easy to use, (get a pair of reading glasses because the text is small) and will inform and entertain, both at the same time! Although the information included doesn't always fall within our pre-17th Century area of interest much of it does. Once you own this book you will often hear yourself saying, “What does Davidson say?” Whether you are looking up the history of a specific product or a broader, general topic like medieval cuisine or Italian cookery books this book is the place to start your journey. Alan Davidson has compiled articles and contributors from among the luminaries of the food history community. The Oxford Companion to Food is well annotated, cross-referenced and has a comprehensive bibliography. In 2002 it won the James Beard Award for Best Reference Book. This book is still available new, but the earlier editions can be found used for a good price. It should be the cornerstone of your food history library.

“Eat this Book” is a syndicated column which can be read in AnTir's Kingdom newsletter The Crier, Tournaments Illuminated and Tir Righ's The Northern Sentinel. It will help you build your food history library one or two books at a time. If you have a book, a country, or a time period you would like explored please write the author at: info@vastrepast.com

Maestro Eduardo Lucrezia is a mid-15th Century Italian Renaissance Court and Kitchen Punk. He is obsessed with the food from the Iberian Peninsula, specifically the recipes of Martino and Platina. He is a Companion of the Order of the Laurel, the Order of the Pelican and a Lion of AnTir. He is also currently the Tanist of Tir Righ.

12th Night Largesse Contest

The DELIGHTFUL DUO LARGESSE CONTEST is coming to 12th Night 2026!

Overview: Each entrant is asked to contribute two nearly identical handmade items which would not normally be donated as largesse due to cost, complexity, or time commitment. One of the two items will be kept by the Crown for gifting to fellow royals or to be used as prizes for other kingdom level contests, the second of the two items will be taken home by one of the other entrants as a prize. This means everyone who enters will go home with something fabulous! Each duo will be put on display Saturday and voted on by the populace during the day, granting the winner first choice of one of the other entries to take home. The order by which the rest of the entrants choose their prize item will be based on a blind drawing of names.

ENTRANTS:

~ While it is not required that you declare your intention to enter ahead of time, it's quite helpful to us if you do so that we can plan accordingly for set-up. It will also allow me to reach out directly with additional contest details if they change. Please email kingdom.largesse@antir.org when you've decided to participate.

~ Entries MUST include 2 CARDS with the following information:

- Entrant SCA name
- Home branch
- Point of contact (email or fb name if different from SCA name)
- A brief description of the item(s) being entered.
- NEW: If your items have loose pieces please include a way to carry each set (2 plastic bags, 2 cardboard boxes, etc., nothing fancy required just practical containment)

~ Please see the "overview" above for contest details/requirements, and if you have any questions please reach out.

The new Kingdom procedure regarding largesse and the border states the Kingdom itself is not transferring largesse across the border. However individuals are still welcome to do so at their own discretion which means if anyone from Tir Righ is attending Twelfth Night and would like to participate in the contest your entries are most welcome

We Remember Dux Darius

On November 23, 2025, friends and family gathered to celebrate a man who had so much life left to live and fought to stay among us all. A loving son, brother, uncle, father and husband; he was a true patriarch who leaves a hole unfilled in this family. Well respected by his colleagues and customers, he was known as a man of his word in the business world and took great pride in his craftsmanship and the reputation of his business. His sons, daughter and wife continue his legacy with the hope we would do him proud.

Cliff left an unmistakable mark on the SCA as a Knight, King, Duke, mentor and friend, remembered for his strength, dignity, kindness and gentle humour. Whether on the battlefield or by a campfire, he carried himself with timeless grace, teaching with patience. Those who knew him recall his laughter, his wisdom and the way he welcomed others into his home, his household or simply his circle, making everyone feel seen. His legacy is reflected in countless memories of courage, guidance and joy, proof of a man who strengthened his community, shaped a kingdom and touched more hearts than he ever knew and whose word-fame will endure.

The coin shown here was first created for Darius and Morgaine's reign as King and Queen, and a set was struck for Cliff's celebration. On the back are the Latin words "Memento Mori." Translated literally, it means "Remember that you will die." The phrase was used in ancient Rome, early Christianity, medieval philosophy, and later in art and literature as a reminder of human mortality and of the importance of living a meaningful life.

To absent friends.

Events

Due to the wildfires in Danescombe in September, Tir Righ successfully moved the Arts & Sciences- Bardic Championships into Nov Coronet. This included some presentations done online as well as in person at the event. The current 'accepted' bid will not be asked to move to a 2 day format.

Event Considerations to think about:

Tir Righ Law states that Nov Coronet and Feb Investiture are 2 day events.

- We got away from this after Covid
- Should we look at blending some events together? Arts & Sciences Champion / Bardic Champion / Heraldic Symposium?
- Possibilities - Add A&S to February and Bardic to November

Officer Vacancies

Minister of Lists

The Minister of Lists is a deputy to the Tir Righ Marshal and is responsible for coordinating the running of martial lists at Principality events. This includes:

- February Investiture – Rapier Championship
- June Coronet – Coronet Tourney, Thrown Weapons Championship
- August Investiture – Heavy Championship, Archery Championship
- November Coronet – Coronet Tourney

Key Responsibilities:

- Organize and manage tournament lists for the above events.
- Maintain calm and accuracy under pressure during competitions.
- Store and transport office items to events, including list boards, list shields, supplies, and a pop-up dayshade.

Additional Information:

- Event registration fee is waived when running lists at these events.
- Experience with lists is a strong asset, along with good organizational skills.
- This is a two-year position.

Interested? Send your SCA resume to seneschal@tirrigh.org, marshal@tirrigh.org, lists@tirrigh.org, and coronets@tirrigh.org. If you're curious but unsure, reach out—we'd love to talk!

Principality Teamster – available immediately

The Teamster is responsible for transporting and maintaining the Principality pavilion and related equipment for Principality events and any Kingdom events that take place in the Principality.

You need to have a vehicle capable of carrying the pavilion and occasionally other smaller items to Principality events. You are responsible for drying and safely store the pavilion after events, identifying any needed repairs and maintain the pavilion in good condition. You should be physically capable of loading and unloading heavy items safely. A mileage stipend is available for travel to events.
